Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Thursday 24 Jun 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Rain in east, south Friday. Mainly dry in far west.

This Evening and Tonight:
The far west mainly dry. Elsewhere cloudy with occasional rain this evening, then central and western areas becoming mainly dry overnight. Winds veering to the north and strngthening from the north.

Friday:
Rain gradually becoming confined to the east and south with most other areas dry with some late sunny spells possible in the far north and west.

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
A lot of dry weather with some sunny spells, and becoming warmer. However there will be a few cloudier spells in the northwest.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.